

Sample Rally Invitation Script

Good morning!

For those of you who may not know me, my name is (fill in your name), and I am here to tell you a little about the Lutheran Women's Missionary Society. In case you are not familiar with the LWMS, it is an organization of women, and the men who love them, which exists to support unfunded WELS mission projects. For more information, I would direct you to check out the full color insert in your bulletins if you haven't done so already. (Note - this insert is the one from Central Office with general LWMS info on it)

Now, that's the big picture, so what does that mean for you here in (your city)? Well, the LWMS is divided into circuits across North America, and each circuit meets twice a year to hear from mission speakers around the globe. I have been to many, and let me tell you, they are always awesome! So I'm standing here before you today because I want to invite you all to join us at our next rally, which is actually just a few weeks away on (date) at (location). We'll be hearing from (presenters) about mission work going on in (mission topic). It starts at (beginning time) and goes until about (ending time) with lunch served as well (edit as necessary). The other nice thing is that we are offering babysitting for those who could use that. If you take a look at the second insert in your bulletin, you'll see all the information listed there. Like I said, it's always interesting to hear what our missionaries are doing and how God's Word is being spread, so I would encourage to come and see for yourself. It's definitely worth your time. (Note - this insert is specific to the upcoming rally)

If you have any questions or would like more information about either the rally or LWMS, I (or specify person) will be standing in the back after church and would be glad to talk with you. We hope to see you on (give rally date and location). Thank you!
